Harry's Two Homes

Written and Illustrated
by Lee Bales

This book was created as a final major project for my BA (Hons) Illustration degree at Norwich University of the Arts in 2023.

A very big thank you to all the Illustration staff that have bestowed a wealth of knowledge upon me during my three year degree.

Thank you to my friends and peers, who were always there to give feedback. It was always appreciated and I wish you all long and successful Illustration careers!

But most of all, Thank You Dad, for making me the man I am today. For always supporting me in my choices, both good and bad.

I made it! I finally got my degree and I owe so much of it to you for making sure I got this far in life. I Love You.

Hi, I'm Harry.

This is a story about my two homes.

When I'm with Mum I have mashed potato.

When I'm with Dad I have chips!

I watch funny movies with Mum.

I watch action movies with Dad.

I listen to classical music with Mum!

And I listen to rock music with Dad.

Mum takes me to school
in the car.

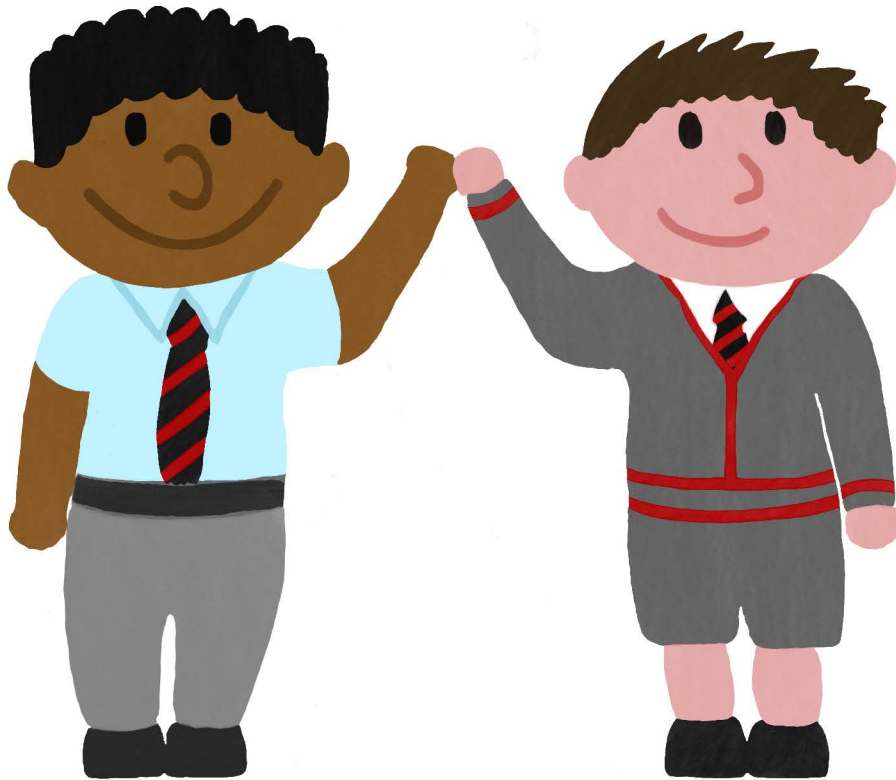

Dad takes me to school
on his bike.

Some of my friends also have two homes!

Some of them don't but they think it's cool.

I go shopping
with Mum.

I go fishing
with Dad.

I go swimming
with Mum.

I play football
with Dad.

My Mum's cat is called Sparky.

My Dad's cat is called Buttons.

My bedroom at Mum's has rockets and astronauts!

My bedroom at Dad's has a jungle and dinosaurs.

I love them both very much!

And they both love me wherever I am.

'Harry's Two Homes' is a book designed to help parents or guardians of younger children explain the experience of having two homes after a parental separation.
