MERLOT
Discover Abruzzos hidden secrets

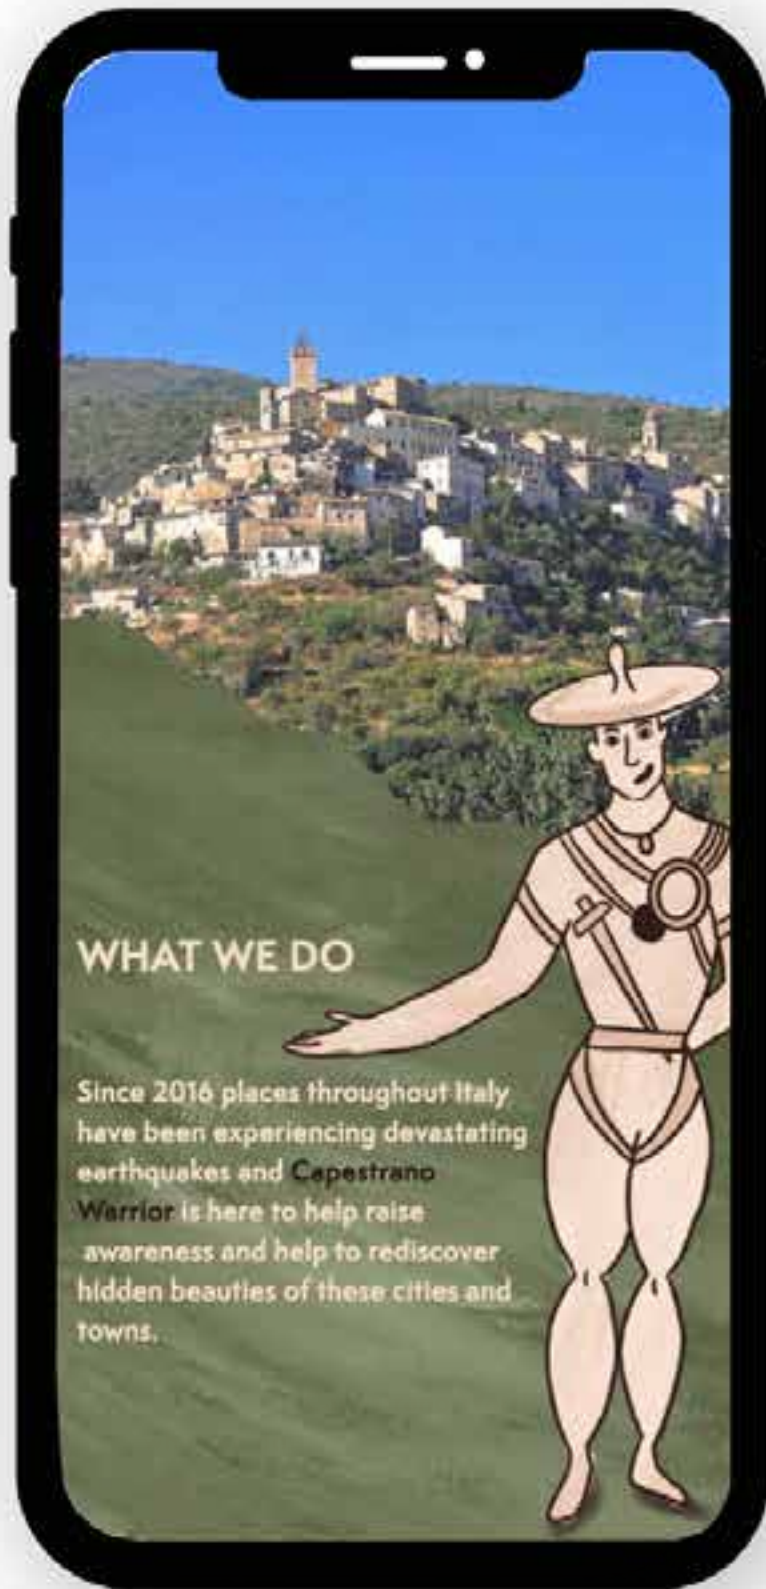

Capestrano Warrior merlot is made from grapes hand-picked from the vineyards in the Capstrano Valleys, which is also the discovery place of the genderless stone warrior. Over the course of recent years many areas in Italy have been experiencing ongoing earthquakes that have had devastating effects on the communities, and we want to help you to rediscover the secrets and treasures of these towns and cities.

Capestrano Warrior is a red merlot inspired by the discovery of the Genderless stone warrior, who was found when a farmer was digging up land for his vinyard. We aim to raise awarness for the cities and towns affected by the on going earthquakes in areas of Italy

WHAT WE DO

Since 2016 places throughout Italy have been experiencing devastating earthquakes and Capestrano Warrior is here to help raise awareness and help to rediscover hidden beauties of these cities and towns.

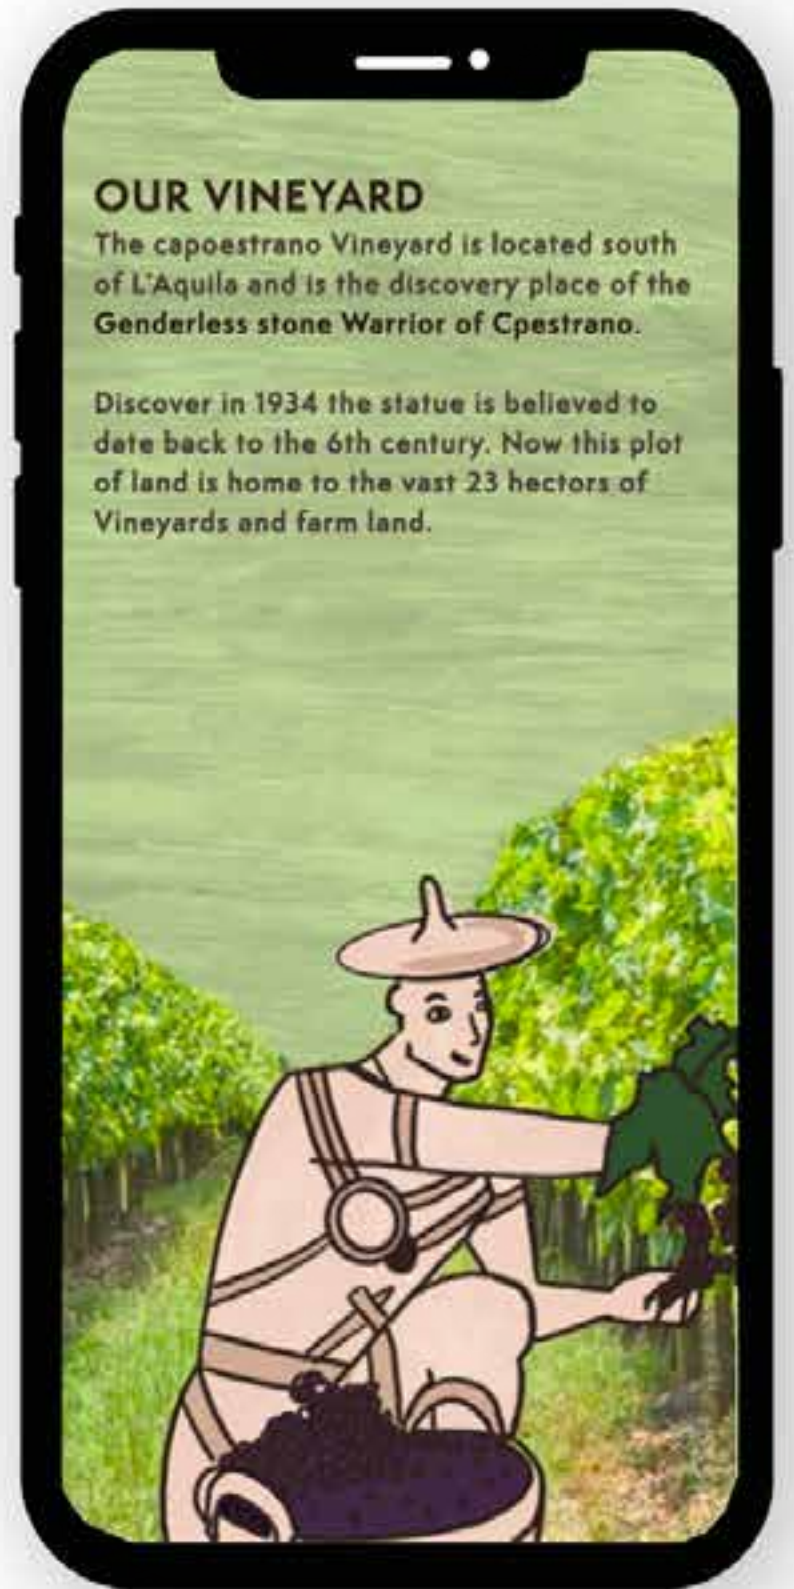

OUR WINE

Capestrano Warrior is a deep and fruity Merlot produced using the red grapes grown in our Capestrano vineyards.

Our wine is best served chilled, helping to enhance the flavors and the smoothness.

Thank you for choosing Capestrano Warrior Merlot, helping to raise awareness and celebrate discovery, we would love to hear your thoughts!

OUR VINEYARD

The capostrano Vineyard is located south of L'Aquila and is the discovery place of the Genderless stone Warrior of Cpestrano.

Discover in 1934 the statue is believed to date back to the 6th century. Now this plot of land is home to the vast 23 hectares of Vineyards and farm land.
